

Ellie Palomo, District Account Manger

Nalco Water, an Ecolab Company

Ellie joined Nalco in July of 1995 and she is currently located in Riverview, Florida. During Ellie's 28 years of service with Nalco, she has provided Total Cost of Operation reduction for customers in the area of water conservation, energy consumption, process optimization and implementation of various industry technologies for improved automation and entire process control.

Major Accomplishments

- Working knowledge of various types of steam generating systems and associated power generation plants such as coal fired, and gas turbine.
- Waste treatment experience in primary and secondary clarification, and foam control.
- Experience in zero liquid discharge (ZLD) water chemistry control for gas turbine plants.
- Understanding in reverse osmosis, demineralized water systems, and other pre-treatment chemistry programs.
- Proficient in Vantage software that allows customers to monitor plant parameters that permits more efficient operation.
- Knowledge and work experience with Nalco 3D TRASAR units & Purate chlorine dioxide generators.

Military Background

Captain, USMC

Navy Achievement Medal due to high operational productivity for Somalia relief efforts.

Educational Background

Master of Arts in Management, Redlands University

Bachelor of Science, Chemistry, Purdue University